Time Management Worksheet

Section 1: My Priorities

Directions: Identify your priorities by organizing them into the following groups. Think about what matters most to you each week — and where your time really goes.

My "Big Rocks" – The Really Important Stuff (Examples: Education, family, work)

Big Rock #	Description	Why It Matters

My "Marbles" – The Other Important Stuff (Examples: Paying bills, exercising, commuting, making dinner)

Marble #	Description	Can I Simplify or Combine It?

My "Sand" – The Fun Stuff (Examples: Hanging with friends, playing games, going to movies)

Sand #	Description	How Often I Do This

My "Water" – The Unexpected Stuff (Examples: Car breaks down, child gets sick, a parent needs assistance)

Water #	Description	How I Usually Respond

Copyright © 2026 WV Adult Basic Education

Section 2: How I Spend My Time

Directions: Complete the following sections to identify the ways you currently spend your time.

1. I currently spend too much time on:

_____

_____

_____

2. I currently don't spend enough time on:

_____

_____

_____

💡 Ways to Spend My Time More Wisely

Try using these ideas to make better use of your time. Check the boxes next to the strategies you'd like to try this week!

- ☐ Group similar activities together
- ☐ Minimize interruptions for tasks that require focus
- ☐ Make lists and prioritize items on the lists
- ☐ Combine tasks or time requirements when possible
- ☐ Create a "time budget" and stick to it
- ☐ Other ideas: _____

Copyright © 2026 WV Adult Basic Education